

AUDIO	VISUAL
Vo: In the small town of Lihue, the Old Plantation Building is home to the Plantation Coffee Company. It's like any other coffee shop. They sell pastries, snacks, and of course coffee. It's also staffed by some hard working employees like Shae Rocha."	Wide of the building
I DO EVERYTHING PRETTY MUCH FROM CLEANING TO MAKING SANDWICHES TO HELPING CUSTOMERS. EVERYTHING PRETTY MUCH.	Lower Third: Shae Rocha/Plantation Coffee Company  Shae working and doing her job
Vo: But Shae's life was not always this easy	Shae working
USING DRUGS AND ALCOHOL WAS A TERRIFYING THING FOR ME. I STARTED AT THE AGE OF 12. IT WAS SCARY, DIFFERENT OBSTACLES. YOU DIDN'T KNOW WHAT WAS COMING YOUR WAY EACH DAY THAT CAME BY.	Pictures of Shae as a teenager
I PROBABLY WOULD HAVE DIED IF I CONTINUED TO DO DRUGS	Shae talking
Vo: But luckily for Shae, she got some help from the managers of the Plantation Coffee Company	Gail making coffee
THEY COME AND DO SOME COMMUNITY SERVICE AT FIRST AND THEN THEY WILL EVENTUALLY GET A JOB DEPENDING ON HOW BUSY WE GET AND THEY BECOME PART OF PLANTATION COFFEE IN A SENSE.	Lower Third: Gail Mendel/Plantation Coffee Company
WELL TO HELP THE HIGH SCHOOL DROPOUTS, IS TO GO AHEAD AND GIVE THEM A LITTLE EXAMPLE AS FAR AS THE EMPLOYEES THAT WE HAVE HIRED. WE THE EMPLOYEES GO AND HELP THE KIDS STEER IN THE RIGHT DIRECTION. AND KINDA USE US AS AN EXAMPLE.	The students working

Vo: But before she could help others with their addiction, she had to get over her addiction.	Gail working
AT THE AGE OF THIRTEEN, I STARTED SMOKING WEED, AND THEN THE ALCOHOL GOT INVOLVED. AND THEN I GREW UP AND GOT INTO THE HARDER THINGS LIKE METH AND COCAINE. THAT WASN'T A PRETTY SIGHT. I ENDED UP IN JAIL. I DID 4 YEARS IN JAIL. AND I THINK THAT WAS MY BOTTOM TO HELP ME TO BE RIGHT TODAY.	Pictures of Gail as teenager
Vo: She did not only change her life, but changed the life of the Plantation Coffee Employees
ITS BEEN GREAT ACTUALLY. BEING CLEAN AND SOBER. MAKING MONEY. OPENED MY OWN BANK ACCOUNT.	Lower Third: Caleb Abergas/Plantation Coffee Company
YA. IM GONNA GET MY HIGH SCHOOL DIPLOMA AND THEN GO TO KCC AND GET MY ASSOCIATES IN CULINARY PROBABLY
My life changed a lot ever since I joined the Plantation Coffee Company. My life has been better. Only positive things like I said	Lower Third:Richard Cremer/Plantation Coffee Company
I KINDA SEE MY SELF IN THESE BOYS BECAUSE I USED TO BE LIKE HOW THEY WERE. AND I WISH I HAD HELP LIKE US AT THAT TIME AND I LOOK FORWARD TO WORKING WITH THEM EVERYDAY, MAKING THEM BETTER HUMAN BEINGS.	Lower Third: Kris Kualii/ Plantation Coffee Company
THERE IS ALWAYS CHANCES FOR EVERYBODY. BUT STAY IN SCHOOL! THATS ABOUT IT.	Lower Third: Sheena Millare/Plantation Coffee Company
Gail: WELL THE OWNER OF THE PLANTATION COFFEE COMPANY, THE WARDEN AT THE JAIL. PEOPLE HAS GIVEN ME A LITTLE GRACE AND THATS WHAT MAKES ME STRIVE TO BE A BETTER PERSON. PEOPLE KINDA HELP

ME ALONG THE LINE. YOU NEED PEOPLE TO HELP YOU. YOU CANT DO IT YOURSELF.
Vo: Gail has proven that everyone gets a second chance no matter the circumstances. This has been Brandon Marcos from Chiefess Kamakahalei Middle School.	